Our greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall.

Confucius

DRAFT COURSEWORK ESSAY

Peer Evaluation II: Main Body of the Coursework Essay

Lancaster University College
at Beijing Jiaotong University

PEER EVALUATION OF COURSEWORK ESSAY MAIN BODY

STUDENT 2: Evaluate your partner's ESSAY main body: Name of evaluator ……..…..…….

ACADEMIC STYLE

a) Scan the paragraph and underline examples of any of the following informal vocabulary:

maybe, get, as we all know, a lot, thing, every coin has two sides, last but not least, what is more, nowadays, more and more, or as we all know, besides, I, you, we, us, our, my, or your

b) Underline any other vocabulary you consider inappropriate or informal

c) Underline any contractions *(*for example: can't, it's, won't, couldn't, don't, and didn't).

MAIN BODY PARAGRAPHS STRUCTURE/CONTENT

a) Is there a clear topic sentence that introduces the main points of each paragraph? Yes / No

b) Are the supporting ideas relevant to the topic sentence? Yes / Sometimes / No

c) Do the supporting sentences contain suitable collocations? Yes / Sometimes / No

d) Does the writer use appropriate linking /reference words Yes / Sometimes / No

e) Is the main body relevant to the essay title? Yes / Sometimes / No

f) Is the essay title relevant to the task outlined in the Task Sheet Yes / Sometimes / No

g) Grammar: Poor / OK / Good

h) Spelling: Poor / OK / Good

REFERENCING & CITATIONS

a) Has the Lancaster Harvard Referencing system been used? Yes / No

b) How many times has the student quoted, rather than paraphrased/summarized? ……

c) Have citations been formatted correctly? Yes / Sometimes / No

i) Is there at least one citation in every paragraph? Yes / No

d) Has a variety of reporting verbs been used? Yes / Sometimes / No

e) Is there a mix of both direct and indirect citations? Yes / Sometimes / No

f) Are there at least 6 citations and references? Yes / No

g) Have the references in the reference list been formatted correctly? Yes / Sometimes / No

h) VERY IMPORTANT

1. Are items in the reference list sorted in alphabetical order?* Yes / No
2. Does each reference match a citation in the reference list?* Yes/ No

i) Are the source texts all academic? Yes / No

FORMATTING

	✓ ✗
1.5 or 2.0 line spacing
A space after each full stop and comma
A page number inserted at the bottom of the page 12-point Times New Roman (preferred), Arial or Calibri.
Black font
1.5 or 2.0 line spacing
Essay cover sheet

GRAMMAR/LEXIS

1. Try to find some grammatical/lexical errors in your partner's paragraphs. You should indicate which type of error has been made in the paragraph using comments (and track changes if needed). You may wish to use the symbols or abbreviations in the table below.

2. Note how many errors occur in the table below:

TYPE OF ERROR	Number	TYPE OF ERROR	Number
ww = wrong word		prep = wrong preposition
number = word should be singular or plural?		art = article should be changed or deleted
tense = wrong tense		vf = wrong form of verb
punct. = wrong punctuation		wf = wrong form of word
informal = informal word used		^ = word missing
/ = unnecessary word		sp = wrong spelling
wo = wrong word order		? = meaning unclear
cs = comma splice run-on = run-on sentence		coll = these words do not collocate
sf = sentence fragment		? = meaning unclear

3. Write at least one comment about the main body of the coursework essay (1st draft):

……

……

……

4. When you have completed the evaluation, please return the document to Student 1

STUDENT 1: SECOND DRAFT OF COURSEWORK ESSAY MAIN BODY

1. Review the evaluation made by Student 2.
2. Further review the paragraphs in Marking Mate:

   (http://www.readingandwritingtools.com/mm/markingmate.html
3. Based on the evaluation of your partner and recommendations made by Marking Mate, you should now improve the main body of your essay.