"The true sign of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination."
Albert Einstein

EAP 401:INDEPENDENT RESEARCH PORTFOLIO

EAP401 IRP Lesson Task 2

Name:

Student Number:

Class:

READING SKILLS FOR ACADEMIC STUDY: STRATEGIES FOR READING ACADEMIC TEXTS

TASK OVERVIEW

IRP Lesson Task 2 is designed to help you review strategies for reading academic texts while assessing your ability to use these strategies effectively. You will:

- Practice identifying your purpose for reading
- Use prediction, skimming, and scanning strategies
- Reflect critically on what you have read

This is an online task that can be completed during the vacation. You should answer each question in the booklet methodically from the beginning. Please do not read the main text until you are advised to do so. You should then upload this document as a Word or PDF document before Monday, October 6 at 10pm. You should rename this document:

'IRP Lesson Task 2 + Name + ID Number'

Before beginning the task:

1. Read The SQ3R Reading and Study System in the Week 3 folder.
2. Read about strategies for reading academic texts here:
    - https://www.uefap.org/reading-strategies-introduction/
3. Go to the following webpage and select one text that interests you by examining titles and briefly skimming through texts.
    - https://www.uefap.org/reading-strategies-exercises/ (do not carefully read any text yet)

Continue on next page…

BEFORE READING

1. Copy and paste the text you have chosen (including the title) here: …

2. Give your reason(s) for wishing to read the text you have chosen. Tick ✓ or highlight any that apply:

- Related to my major
- General interest in this topic
- Looking for specific answers to questions
- Interested in the writer's viewpoint
- Other (please specify):

SURVEY AND QUESTION: Do not carefully read the text yet

First impressions

3. Review the title, any sub-headings, and any images or illustrations. What type of text is it? Tick ✓ or highlight any that apply:

- Academic
- Informal
- Introductory textbook
- Newspaper article
- Journal article
- Unsure / Not given

4. Based on your initial impressions, make at least two predictions for what the text will be about:

a) …

b) …

5. Reflect on what you already know on this topic and write down what you would like to find out from the text. Write down 3 questions you would like answers to:

a) **…

b) **…

c) **…

READ the text

6. Read a) the first and last paragraphs and b) the beginning and final sentences of the other paragraphs; SCAN the text to discover whether any of your questions are answered.

- Were any of your predictions accurate? YES / NO
- Were any of your questions answered? YES / NO

7. Give one example of a prediction or question that was answered and indicate the answer you found in your own words:

- Question/prediction? …
- Answer: …

8. Now carefully read the full text…

RECALL: Summary

9. Describe your reaction to the text. Do you find it interesting, informative, well-argued, boring, illogical, inaccurate? Why? Write 1-2 sentences:

Write your reaction here:

……

……

……

……

10. a) Write a brief summary of the text (about 150-200 words)

OR

b) Create a mind-map of main + subsidiary ideas

a) Write summary here:

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……..

b) Create mind-map here:

REVIEW: Critical Thinking

1.

11. Write a brief evaluation of the text, addressing points below. Give examples or brief quotations where relevant. You should write about 220-300 words:

a) Value and relevance

Is the text related to your subject area or interests? Are the ideas in the document relevant today? Why? Why not?

b) Integration with prior knowledge

Did the text offer any valuable insights? Did the information confirm, challenge, or expand your understanding?

c) Strength of argument

Were the author's claims supported with convincing evidence? Was the reasoning logical and coherent? Why or why not?

d) Personal stance

Which points did you agree or disagree with, and why? Did you notice any bias, assumptions, or gaps in knowledge?

Write evaluation here:

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

……

. ……

……

……

……

……

……..

……

……

……..

……..

……

12. Make a list of at least 5 new words you wish to learn; for each word you should provide:

- A definition
- The word form
- A phrase in which the word occurs
- At least one synonym

WORD	WORD FORM	SYNONYM	DEFINITION
Example sentence
Example sentence

Example sentence
Example sentence
Example sentence
Example sentence			